Dvorak Instruments, Inc. and CoolFire Trainer among 1,600 exhibitors at the 2019 SHOT Show® in Las Vegas

TULSA November 30th, 2018 – DVORAK INSTRUMENTS INC. will be joining an amazing list of more than 1,600 exhibitors at the 2019 SHOT Show®, January 21–25, at the Sands Expo Center in Las Vegas.

“Exhibiting at the SHOT Show is the highlight of our calendar. Our simulated recoil kits in real firearms always draw crowds and lead to many friendly and productive conversations that we build on in the coming months,” says Ján Sabo, Marketing Director.

AT the 2019 Show, Dvorak Instruments Inc. is looking forward to unveiling several evolutionary as well as game-changing innovations. The product portfolio will feature several new models of professional grade simulated recoil kits utilized by law enforcement and military users, as well as the latest iterations of established products such as the TriggerScan and TriggerPull Trainer. Ján Sabo says attendees will be able to meet face-to-face with his technical, logistical, and commercial colleagues, and to discuss partnership and growth opportunities that will drive the next selling season.

CoolFire Trainer has introduced several new models of simulated recoil kits for competitive shooters, firearms instructors, and civilians. In 2018, we have been growing in strides, reaching new audiences and establishing new industry partners. We have made significant investments into manufacturing capacity, logistic, and customer service, and in 2019 we are looking forward to bringing CoolFire Trainer kits to prime time.
